

The following activities will be undertaken to celebrate the International Day for the Preservation of the Ozone Layer (16 September, 2009):

- Press conferences with participation of NOU (National Ozone Unit), Ministry of Ecology and Natural Resources, End-users, main importers and distributors of refrigerants and refrigeration equipment as well as mass-media representatives;
- Together with Institute of Ecology and Geography carrying out an Ecological hour - this year theme “Ozone Protection unifies the World” in primary and high schools of the republic;
- Broadcasting radio transmission (round table discussion) in the format “ECO-TERRA”, under the topic: “Terminal Phase-out of CFCs in Moldova”;
- Workshop with doctors – “Transition Strategy to CFC-free MDIs”;
- In cooperation with the Ministry of Education the NOU will distribute and make public some promotional materials:

